Lausanne Peace Conference Postponed

CLOSE OF CAMPAIGN SHOWS DEMOCRATIC CONFIDENCE FOR SUCCESS OF TICKET

Boston Paper Says Fitzgerald May Get 400,000 Votes—Prospect of Lodge's Defeat—Candidates to Speak at Auditorium—Arrangements for Election—The Referenda

The state campaign will be brought to a close tonight and tomorrow the citizens of Lowell will join with the voters of the commonwealth in electing a United States senator, an entire state ticket, national representatives, state legislators from many districts and county officers. Also, there will be state-wide votes on important referenda, including motion picture censorship and the acceptance of a state prohibition enforcement law.

Election Arrangements
Every precaution possible has been taken by the elections commission to see that tomorrow's elections will be conducted according to the very letter of the law. The commission is prepared for the elections as it has never been prepared before. Additional police officers, compared with the number on duty in the primaries, have been secured and the booths and ballot boxes will be guarded from the minute the polls open.

De Valera Denies Peace Negotiations

DUBLIN, Nov. 6.—(By the Associated Press)—A long statement issued "as a Daily communiqué" and signed by Eamon de Valera, president, announces definitely that there is no truth to the rumors of peace negotiations between his party and the Free State government. The principles, which the republicans are defending, de Valera says, are by nature irreducible and not open to compromise. Victory for the "republic" or utter defeat and extermination are now, he declares, the only alternatives.

Bomb Explodes in Alderman's Home

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—A bomb explosion early today jolted Alderman William R. O'Toole, and his family from bed and damaged their residence in West Garfield boulevard. The alderman said he was unable to assign a cause for the attack although the police supposition was that a possible political animus may have been behind it. A meeting of ward captains was held at the alderman's home last night. The explosion jarred the family from their sleep and two of the four children suffered severe fright. The door and entrance to the house and window panes were shattered. A wire was found hanging from a mailbox near the back door and the police believe the bomb was suspended by the wire.

Rector's Widow Insists That She Be Allowed to Appear Before Grand Jury

Investigators of Hall-Mills Case Confer to Perfect Long Chain of Evidence

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Nov. 6.—A conference between Attorney-General McCran and all the investigators of the Hall-Mills murder case has been called. It was learned today, for the purpose of perfecting the long chain of evidence to be submitted to the grand jury later in the week.

This conference will determine, also, it is said, whether Mrs. Frances Stevens Hall, the slain rector's wife, will be permitted to appear before the grand jury as she has requested. The authorities already have declared that they would make every effort to prevent Mrs. Hall from telling her story to the grand jury.

Several of the members of the Hall household and close friends of Mrs. Hall probably will be summoned before the investigators during the conference.

SCANDAL ON EVE OF ELECTION

One Man Arrested and Four Others Sought on Warrants in Ohio County

Charge Attempt to Purchase Absentee Votes — Bitter Campaign Ends

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 6.—An election scandal in which one man has been arrested and four others are sought on warrants charging them with the attempted purchase of the absentee votes of Pike county residents now living in Toledo and Ross counties today, featured the 11th hour of Ohio's strenuous political campaign.

Former Judge A. Z. Baker of Portsmouth, who presided at the disfranchisement of scores of Adams county voters several years ago, is assisting a citizens' protective committee in Pike's county with prosecutions. Dry workers continued their campaign in the churches yesterday against the proposed amendment to legalize the sale of wine and beer in Ohio.

In addition to the wine and beer amendment, the wet and dry issue will enter many of the congressional races. Fourteen congressional candidates have been charged as "bribe" by the anti-saloon league, and 25 have been charged as "dry". Mrs. Virginia Darlington Greene of Cleveland is an independent candidate for United States senator and Common Pleas Judge Florence E. Allen of Cleveland is an independent candidate for judge of the state supreme court.

Leaders of both parties agree that the result of tomorrow's vote in Ohio will be an endorsement or rejection of President Harding's administration by the voters of his home state.

GASTON CONFIDENT ON EVE OF ELECTION

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—William A. Gaston, democratic candidate for the United States senate, issued the following crisp statement today at the close of a rousing reception tendered him by his old neighbors of the Roxbury district in Rose Croix hall:

"I have just met my old neighbors and told them that I expect to be elected to the United States senate on Tuesday by a majority of 50,000 votes. I shall serve my state and nation faithfully. I think there is nothing more to be said."

NEARLY $2000 IS OBTAINED

Y. M. C. A. Teams Report Good Progress on First Day of Drive

Local Organization Out to Raise $12,000 Fund in Five Days

A report of 12 team captains, made this noon at an organization dinner shows that nearly $2000 has been raised on the first day of the drive in which the Y.M.C.A. seeks to obtain $12,000 for running expenses. An important announcement was made that there will be no dinner tomorrow owing to the fact that it is election day and that the Rotary club is entertaining Judge Louis Cox. The next meeting will be held in the Y.M.C.A. on Wednesday noon. The team captains desire to have every member of their teams present or to have turned in in time for the meeting a report of what each individual has been doing.

The organization asks but $12,000 to carry on its work. Last year a like amount was asked and was obtained. The local organization points to the fact that it asks for less money than any other branch in New England.

The luncheon this noon, served in the Y.M.C.A. hall on the second floor.

Turks Demand Warships of All Nations Ask Permission to Enter Straits

Allies to Refuse Turkish Demand for Military Evacuation of Constantinople

LONDON, Nov. 6 (by the Associated Press).—As a result of the new situation created in Constantinople by the demand of Ismet Pasha that the allied military occupation of the city should cease, the peace conference called to meet at Lausanne, Nov. 13, has been postponed, possibly for a fortnight, it was announced here today.

Turkish Note to Allies
CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 6 (by the Associated Press).—The Turkish nationalist government has handed a note to the allied high commissioners here to the effect that the warships of all nations must ask it for authorization to pass the Straits of the Dardanelles, the Havas correspondent here has been informed. They must also salute the new government of Turkey.

So far as can be learned today, the allies have not abdicated. It is believed the British authorities are taking measures to protect him and the prince, his heir.

In Ankara the religious committee of the assembly is hurriedly trying to choose the person it considers most qualified to ascend the Osman throne as Caliph in succession to Mohammed VI.

EXPLOSION ENTOMBS MINERS IN COAL MINE NEAR SPANGLER, PA.

First Rescue Party to Enter Mine After Blast Found Three Bodies and Expressed Fear That Some, if Not All of the Other 90 Men Entombed Were Dead

SPANGLER, Pa., Nov. 6.—(By the Associated Press) The first rescue party to enter the Rellly coal mine after an explosion today found three bodies and expressed fear that some, if not all of the other 90 men entombed were dead.

The rescue party had proceeded to the third entry on the right of the main entry, when they came upon the bodies. The bodies were brought to the foot of the shaft and the party went back for further exploration.

The news of the explosion brought the wives and children of the miners to the shaft mouth.

The shaft, which is about 200 feet deep, was not damaged by the explosion and cage continued to operate.

It was said by mine authorities that one of the main entries was blocked by falling debris about 600 feet from the bottom of the shaft.

Rescue Train Rushes to Scene
PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 6.—A Pennsylvania locomotive screeching through mist and rain at the rate of a mile a minute, was on its way to Spangler today with a car and a mine rescue crew. Railroad officials said the car should reach Spangler about 1.30 o'clock this afternoon. Spangler is 122 miles from Pittsburgh.

The equipment includes six cages of canaries. The birds detect the presence of gas.

MOTOR APPARATUS FOR FIRE DEPARTMENT

After reading stories appearing in The Sun last week in which the views of Chief Saunders of the fire department and Dr. Eaton, local veterinarian, were given relative to the condition of the horses in the local department, Mayor Brown said today that he would purchase a motor apparatus for the fire department with at least one new piece of motor apparatus before the year was out.

Chief Saunders reiterated the fact Saturday that with one triple combination the city could do away with five horses. When advised of this the mayor expressed surprise. He said that if such were the case he would see what could be done about getting money to provide this piece of equipment.

ANOTHER BOOST FOR JAMES C. REILLY

William C. Drouet of Arlington Heights, one of the republican candidates for district attorney, who polled upwards of 230 votes in the primaries, was in Lowell today and in an exclusive statement given to The Sun, came out flat-footedly for James C. Reilly.

In so doing, Mr. Drouet made his first deviation from the republican ticket in 25 years.

"One of the purposes of the vote to be taken tomorrow is to hire a new district attorney for Middlesex county," said Mr. Drouet, "and from the point of view of a business man, a lawyer and for more than 25 years a voter and taxpayer in this county, my unhesitating choice between James C. Reilly and Arthur K. Reading is Mr. Reilly."

"I believe it to be my plain, conscientious duty to do all I can to influence the hiring of Mr. Reilly's legal services for the county. My action in this respect is my first deviation from my party ticket in all the years I have voted and my only defence in so doing is based upon the proposition that when the public welfare is not in accord with the welfare of any political party, the party must give way."

ATTACHMENT FILED
An attachment in the sum of $1000 has been filed at the local registry of deeds office in an action of contract against Rebecca and Jacob Garlick, both of Dramet.

Wire rope, so far as known, was made first in Germany about 1821.

Associate hulk, Miner-Doyles, tonight.

5. It is unnecessary. The present law provides adequate supervision.

Chicago School Police Save Life

ONE OF CHICAGO'S SCHOOLBOY TRAFFIC COPS. INSET IS THE BADGE OF AUTHORITY

BY ROY GIBBONS

NEA Staff Correspondent

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—Chicago public school children are effectively cutting down the number of fatal traffic accidents, which claimed an appalling toll of death and injury from among their number.

This work is being carried on through the "Boys' Safety Patrol," a novel safety-first agency recruited entirely from among older boys in upper elementary grades. These boys volunteered their services, and are given police power to regulate traffic at dangerous street intersections near their schools.

The system went into effect in May 1921, following vigorous protests lodged with the mayor by indignant parents who had tired of the repeated

MOTHER—HAS YOUR CHILD THESE SYMPTOMS?

Mothers watch children for symptoms of internal disorders. Look at your child NOW! Is his breath offensive and tongue coated? Does he grind his teeth or start in his sleep? Is his appetite changeable? Has he occasional gripping pains? Is he constipated?

These are some symptoms of worms. Great distress often results from these parasites. Believe him quickly with Dr. Frank's Little, the True Little, the Little Worm Expeller—first prescribed over 20 years ago. Still in action and pleasant to take. Dr. Frank's Little, the True Little, the Little Worm Expeller, purifies the bowels as it clears them. A favorite of careful mothers for four generations. Corrects constipation in young and old. 40c—60c—$1.20.—Adv.

The Mistake That millions have corrected

As most folks know, brushing teeth in old ways proved most disappointing. Teeth still discolored, still decayed. Beautiful teeth were seen less often than today. Tooth troubles came to 49 in 50.

Millions of people, nearly all the world over, have found a better method. The glistening teeth you see everywhere now show one of the results.

All due to film

Most cloudy teeth and most tooth troubles are now traced to film. Film is that viscous coat you feel. It clings to teeth, gets between the teeth and stays. Food stains, etc., discolor it, then it forms dingy coats. Tartar is based on film.

Film also holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed by millions in it. They, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea. No ordinary tooth paste effectively combats film. So, despite all brushing, very few escaped those film-caused troubles.

Two new methods

Then dental science, after long research, found two film combatants. One acts to curdle film, one to remove it, and without any harmful scouring.

Able authorities proved these methods efficient. Then leading dentists everywhere began to advise their use.

A new-type tooth paste was created, based on modern research. The name is Pepsodent. Then these two film combatants were embodied in it for daily application.

Other new ideas

Modern research also discovered two other essentials, and Pepsodent fulfills them.

It multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva. That is there to constantly neutralize the acids which cause decay. It multiplies the starch digestant in saliva. That is there to digest deposits on teeth which may otherwise ferment and form acids.

Thus Pepsodent, twice daily, gives manifold power to Nature's great tooth-protecting agents in the mouth.

New beauty comes

Users of Pepsodent gain new beauty, new charm. You see that everywhere. Note how many pretty teeth show—teeth which were once concealed. No woman, no man, who once sees these results will ever go without them.

Send the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coats disappear.

This test will be a delightful revelation. It will point the way, for you and yours, to life-long benefits. Cut out the coupon so you won't forget.

TWO IN FAMILY ARE RESTORED BY TANLAC

"Tanlac built my husband and myself both up to good health a year ago and the best part of it is, we have remained well ever since." This statement was made, a few days ago, by Mrs. Jessie Purdy, a highly esteemed resident of Manchester, Vt. My trouble was a general run-down condition, bordering on to serious illness. I wasn't eating anything scarcely and my strength was fast leaving me. With the utmost care as to what I would eat I could not keep down a gastric condition of the stomach that not only pained me a great deal but brought on attacks of shortness of breath and palpitation that were distressing in the extreme. My nerves got so upset that I would be awake at all hours of the night. I felt tired and listless all the time and was subject to blinding headaches and dizzy spells.

"My husband was in much the same condition, but as I said Tanlac soon relieved our troubles and we have enjoyed splendid health ever since. I have only the highest praise for Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

A protected child, hitching wagons or autos, has the right to arrest the individual and issue a warning.

Should the pupils resent the officer's remonstrance, or repeat the offense, a report of the occurrence is made out by the patrol officer, and after the matter is submitted to the school principal, it is then forwarded to the juvenile court.

When a safety patrol officer is detailed at any crossing already protected by a regular police officer, he renders every possible assistance to the regular man and takes instructions from him.

Cost Is Low

Total cost of maintaining the patrol in 100 elementary grade schools is less than $500. This included purchase of 3000 arm bands for the 3000 members of the patrol and printing of various report cards.

But with this small appropriation, the death toll of school children in the city, has been reduced from 235 killed the year prior to organization of the patrol, to 100 killed since.

These figures include all children of 11 and under and do not separate those killed only at school crossings, or streets near school buildings during the school year.

As a matter of record, only 10 lives have been lost for crossings where the Safety Patrol has had members stationed, as compared to the loss of almost a life a day the year previous.

In addition to these obvious beneficial results, creation of the patrol police force from traffic duty to regular police work.

The answer to above question will appear in this space tomorrow.

Yesterday's Question: Why refined granulated sugar?

The Answer: Many impurities are removed from sugar by the final refining processes, which result in granulated sugar. Because of this purification, and also because of its flavor, only the purest granulated sugar is good enough for Bond Bread. Other grades of sweetening would cost much less, but Bond Bread's "home-made" flavor would suffer.

ISSUES AND CANDIDATES

The chief question in the state campaign which will close tonight is the contest waged by Col. William A. Gaston against U. S. Senator Lodge. It has been really astonishing to find what bitter attacks have been made upon Senator Lodge by members of his own party, chiefly those identified with the Liberal Republican league. They have charged him with being reactionary to the last degree, a member of the Old Guard of the republican party, whose policies have long ago been discarded by the forward-looking leaders in the party organization. It has been charged that Senator Lodge in maintaining his high national leadership in the republican party has neglected the interests of Massachusetts and New England and that as a result Massachusetts industries have suffered in common with those of other New England states. This is all true and the fact is, that for many years Senator Lodge has devoted his time and his energies mainly to national questions, chiefly those involved in our foreign relations. Under such circumstances, it is not surprising that he paid little or no attention to economic conditions affecting Massachusetts such as railroad differentials and the rapidly declining trade of the port of Boston.

Had Senator Lodge given his attention to these matters and used his influence in behalf of his own state, he could undoubtedly have prevented much of the discrimination that has been used against this state by the big railroads, a discrimination that has been the chief element that placed our industries at a disadvantage in competition with those of other states.

It may be said that Senator Lodge is not directly responsible for these conditions, but the fact that he made no effort to counteract them through legislation or otherwise, indicates that beyond question he has been negligent of his duty in this respect and that as a result Massachusetts industries have been placed under an unjust freight system, which favors those of the south and the middle west.

Col. Gaston has pointed out how these evils came about and how they can be remedied by a senator who understands economic and commercial questions and who is not controlled by the predatory interests. Senator Lodge's attitude in allowing these interests to dictate the schedules they should have in the new tariff law, has been exposed as showing his disregard for the interests of the plain people. The worst schedule is a notable example. That alone will add from three to six dollars to the price of every suit of woolen clothing and it is estimated that the total amount that the American people will thus have to pay in tribute to the interests thus given the power of taxation through the tariff law will exceed four billion dollars in one year. The wage earner will find the cost of living advancing while his wages will remain stationary and this movement, as usual, will go on for a considerable time before the working people find any relief through increased wages. If wages kept pace with the cost of living there would be no ground for complaint.

In his various speeches in this campaign Hon. John F. Fitzgerald has shown up a great many serious defects in the state administration. He recalled the fact that Attorney-General Allen wanted to be nominated for governor in order that he should clean out the corrupt political ring in control of the state house. Mr. Allen, of course, knew where he spoke; but he did not get the chance to do any house cleaning on Beacon Hill. As a result, the conditions of which he complained are largely unremedied and may so remain until the present regime is driven from power. Mr. Fitzgerald has expressed confidence of election next Tuesday and has promised to make all necessary reforms if he becomes the next governor. It remains for the citizens, therefore, to make the necessary change by electing the entire democratic ticket.

In reference to the local candidates voters of Lowell should give their united support to James C. Reilly, Esq., candidate for district attorney. Mr. Reilly is at present assistant district attorney and is recognized on all sides as thoroughly qualified to perform the duties of the office with honor to himself and credit to his native city and to the county. As to the other local candidates, it is hoped that the democrats will stand loyally by the nominees of the party, voting solidly for the congressional, senatorial and representative candidates as well as for Mr. William C. Purcell, who seeks reelection as register of deeds. It is only by the election of democratic candidates that democratic principles can be applied in directing the government.

PLAN B CHARTER

Whether we shall continue under our present city charter or adopt Plan B will be decided at the polls tomorrow. As already stated, there is very little difference between the frame work of government provided by our present charter and that provided for in Plan B. In an article printed elsewhere in this paper, a comparison is made between the two forms of charter and a perusal of that article will enable voters to see the main points of difference and to vote intelligently upon this rather important question. If Plan B should be adopted, the present government would go out of office on the first Monday of next January to give way to a new set of officials chosen under Plan B. The change would doubtless bring out a long list of candidates and there would be the usual trades on the street corners with an army of candidates each putting forth his own claims and decrying those of his opponents. In the matter of charter, as in that of candidates, we get what we bargain for at the polls.

ONE CASE AGAINST LODGE

Railroad employees belonging to the federated railroad unions strongly resent an editorial and news item recently printed in the Boston Herald, the leading G.O.P. organ in Massachusetts, which left the inference that the railroad workers' federation was "not interested in the coming election."

In a sharp statement that appears to set the railroad workers right on the political questions of the day in the state campaign, the workers' executive board president, C. S. Severns, declares unequivocally that the federation members certainly are interested in the election campaign and interested enough to fight for the defeat of all reactionary leaders of the present republican administration.

The executive board of the system federation No. 18, affiliated with the A. F. of L., has gone on record unambiguously as being opposed to the reelection of Senator Lodge, and the slogan of the A. F. of L. members from now on is as it has been always in the past: "Elect Your Friends and Defeat Your Enemies."

The railroad shopworkers and organized trainmen, too, declare that Mr. Lodge has not been their friend as evidenced by his record in the past and his more recent record close to the present campaign. About two months ago Senator Lodge is alleged by the railroad federation members to have informed one of their number that he "was not familiar with the railroad situation."

If the senator was the friend and true representative of the people, as he claims to be in elaborate speeches, he surely would be interested enough to familiarize himself with all of the details of such an important matter as the present struggle in which the railroad workers are engaged with their employers.

The railroad men have issued circulars explaining in detail why the organized union branches cannot support Mr. Lodge for reelection and why they will work for his opponent. The most effective way to encompass the defeat of a man who has failed to aid those who labor when their demands are just, is to vote for William A. Gaston. And the vote will not be wasted.

THE COAL SITUATION

President Harding's coal commission has had its picture taken, has begun to draw its salary and will soon undertake to locate the reasons and the blame for last summer's strike in the mines. But it offers no hope of a reduction in the cost of coal during the present autumn and the coming winter.

All that the commission promises or that the public may expect is, that there will be an investigation of the disturbances of last spring and summer and a recommendation for the avoidance of a like conflict next spring and next summer. But the public is waiting for coal and must pay the present prices, not last year's prices or next year's prices. These prices are at the highest level ever reached in this country, even in the time of war when ten thousand industries and a myriad ships and locomotives were under full steam in performing the titanic task of manufacturing and transporting munitions for our own military and naval forces and those of the allies.

There is nothing in the law which created the president's coal commission, and there is nothing in the program of that body upon which the people of the country may depend for a lessening of the cost of keeping warm this winter. There is nothing in the law to prevent profiteers from capitalizing the effects of the strike and their opportunities for exploiting the public. The surest way to purge the value of the commission's powers and authority and control over prices is to inquire of the nearest dealer how much he demands for a ton of coal of any kind or quality. The dealer's answer will take the form of a figure that represents a higher cost for coal than the American people have been compelled to pay since the most critical days of the World war.

So much for the commission that was heralded as a bulwark between the consumer and the profiteer. For this state of affairs, the republican party is directly responsible. Hard coal is already $20 per ton and cannot be had even at that price. The situation is already serious. What it will be next December or January may be judged from the fact that at present the profiteers are in control and the government moves not a hand to dislodge them.

The action of the commission looks to the future of the mining and distribution of coal, rather than a solution of the present situation. If it exercises good judgment, it will probably recommend the nationalization of the coal resources of the country or else government control of mining and distribution so as to prevent the operators and railroads, speculators and profiteers, jointly or severally taking advantage of public necessity to fleece the people.

DESTRUCTIVE CAMPAIGNING

Characterizing the movement to amend the constitution of the United States so as to permit congress to over-ride and nullify decisions of the supreme court as "the most dangerously destructive doctrine that has been evolved in America since the birth of bolshevism," the executive committee of the National Security league announces a nation-wide campaign of opposition. The league is non-partisan and has members in all of the states and territories.

If any considerable sympathy with the movement is found among the men who will compose the new congress, the league will carry the fight into the legislatures of all the states where the final decision on the amendment would rest.

We do not believe that this movement will find any strong backing among the people who understand how important it is to preserve the constitution against partisan attacks such as might be expected from congress. If any such power were vested in congress, the constitution might as well be abolished for the reason that the decisions of the supreme court would be changed or overruled according to the whims of congress. It is of the highest interest to every citizen that this palladium of our liberties shall be preserved in its entirety against the whims of faction or the strife of political partisanship.

TO THE WOMEN

In tomorrow's election much will depend upon the women. They are expected to show good judgment in dealing with the issues of the election. But they can exert no influence on the result unless they vote. It is, therefore, important that all shall vote and in order to be safe, they should vote early. The polls open at 5 a. m. and close at 4 p. m. Those who work will either have to vote before going to work or at noon unless they are given an opportunity to leave their work long enough to go to the polls. No employer can well deny any voter the privilege of going out to vote.

DEAD MEN'S BONES

New York Chinese are having the bones of dead relatives dug up to be sent to China. It is very plain that exhumation and shipment to China must be an expensive undertaking and one which only the wealthy Chinese can afford. There are some Chinese buried in the Edison cemetery, but as yet no move has been made to send the bones back to China. We surmise that such of the Chinese as imbibed the spirit of American thrift will not go to the expense of shipping the bones of their relatives back to China.

SEEN AND HEARD

We haven't heard of any coal men coming around and saying: "One lump or two," as yet.

The Kaiser fled when the Yanks surged over the old Argentine. Yet he has the courage to take a widow and five children. Oh boy!

The pacifists who wanted us to swap everything in the war business, now want us to stand up and fight that Near East crowd!

When England puts out stamps showing old Columbus holding a telescope 100 years before they were invented, there's something wrong this side of Denmark.

When Adam named all the animals we know, he had a big start on the boy who labelled the latest Pullman cars that wander by the Middlesex station irregularly.

A Thought

In this world it is not what we take up, but what we give up, that makes us rich.—Henry Ward Beecher.

The Open Window

"Are you aware, sir," called the reseller who had a window in a householder, "that one of your windows is open?" "Which?" asked the man of the house. "Well, as a matter of fact," said the other, "it's the one you're looking out of."

Couldn't Understand

A little girl, who does not understand aneas, found fault with the audience at a recent children's concert in which she helped to sing a chorus. "I know we didn't make any mistake," she exclaimed on the way home, "and yet they made us sing it all over again."

The "Bulletin" Grows

The democratic rally in the Auditorium was the largest in the history of the city. The crowd was estimated at about 4000, but the morning after the republican rally, the Bulletin board across the street read "35,000 at big republican rally." The seating capacity of the Auditorium is between 4000 and 4500, but what's a few thousand between friends.

Dying Man's Appetite

He had 15 minutes to live. Were there no last words? Was there no one he wanted to see? Had he no urgent request to make? Yes? Then from his bed of sickness he staggered to the phone. Was it his mother to whom he wished to bid his farewell? No. It was his wife. He called her. "Listen, Mabel. Have a good sleep at dinner tonight. That death seizes all ways make me feel tired. That's all, goodbye." And he rushed back to take his place again as the camera operator started taking him in his last moments.

Sent Passenger's Wish

The high-powered car was speeding toward a railroad crossing when a train rounded the bend a mile away. The two men in the front seat, both racing heads, began an argument as to whether or not they could beat the train to the crossing. The driver insisted he could easily make it, his companion that the train would beat them by several minutes. The argument and the speed increased and the train rolled swiftly on. Finally a passenger in the rear seat could stand it no longer. Frantically clutching the side of the car, he shouted: "I don't give a — who wins this race, but I hope it ain't a tie."

Friendship

Oh, suffer much for friendship's sake. Or soon the golden ties will break. Forgiving and forgetting things— Of that the heart of friendship sings. Take care and lose it not while here. That treasure we should hold so dear. Be true, be tolerant, and though tried, Keep friendship folded to your side. Patience and kindness—and then, Patience and kindness again. Thus, and thus only through the years, Friendship outlasts the ache and tears. —JY FOLGER TICKINLEY.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

Not all "tag days" conducted by earnest campaigners in Lowell streets during the past few months, have been popular because we have had so many similar "days" during the past year. But can recall no day set aside for money-collecting that had more generous support from genuine and sympathetic givers, than the "forget-me-not day" conducted in this city Saturday. The campaign started early and public sympathy was, therefore, engaged in the merits of the campaign before the day set for the distribution of the emblems of remembrance. I believe the offerings on Saturday, which were splendid, in view of the many "tag days" we have had for so many weeks on busy Saturdays, came freely in nearly all cases and those who contributed to a large extent, did so because of their sympathy for the disabled veterans and their patriotic sentiments that made the annual solicitation for funds a genuine success.

I believe that Sebastian Bert A. Cluff of Braintree would make an excellent chief if he ever were compelled to leave off tilling the soil on that mighty farm of his out in the township where he is one of the leading agriculturists, as well as town officials. On visiting Cluff's place today to obtain a report of the money earned in the sale and election of officers, I ran across two men wearing white aprons and swinging big knives in one of the anti-rooms. I didn't know what to expect, until I saw Brother Cluff sitting off nice-looking portions of cooked meats and things, the very thing that I had been told he did not do. Then I discovered that Mr. Cluff and an assistant were really "chief cooks and bottle washers" for the Grangers that day, the "men folks" serving the entire meal after it had been brought to the hall in basket barrels. The "forget-me-not" day, however, and Mr. Cluff loaded the part in his chief's uniform, which had to be built for a man who weighs more than 200 pounds, of course. Brother Cluff, I may also mention, is not only popular in Grange circles, but he is well known in Grange matters, and that is a fact that is well known to a lot of business in conduct from town hall headquarters 365 days in the year when he isn't farming on the side.

So far as I could learn no Lowell retail merchants had time to attend the monthly meeting of the Massachusetts Retail Merchants' association held in Springfield, Thursday, with a dinner and business session at Hotel Kimball. By the way, this hotel is one of the finest and best known in New England. It is well equipped to handle convention crowds, and Lowell needs a hotel about the size of this Springfield institution. Then perhaps we could induce the merchants' association—one of the most active in New England, to meet in Lowell for some of its many sessions, that usually have many interesting features. Lowell was well represented at the former session of the association held in Boston, Louis R. Shudley, formerly of Chalfont's, was generally a regular attendant.

These are busy days for Shant. Charles Whelan of the recent street railway division. He is really a hard man to locate when you want to get a little railway news. For two or three weeks, or more, Mr. W. has been seen but seldom in the little office on Market street. I understand the numerous track improvement problems are keeping him busy in the outskirts, the Dilberia work being extensive, with many workmen employed. One day not long ago, three big gangs of workmen—more than 100 in all—were putting down new sleepers and new iron rails, making it difficult to maintain regular car service without some delay. From the Edison cemetery outward, the new work has been going on rapidly and with fine results. The old Eastern is certainly showing a spirit of revival, if the new construction work in the way of track and roadbed improvements indicates anything. But while the company puts out its money in this way it cannot very well reduce fares.

On Saturday as I rode in the High street street car, a group of four well-dressed young girls, sitting on two seats facing each other, and having a very jolly time, laughing and carrying on a continuous ripple of good natured fun, but without being boisterous or unladylike. The car was packed, all the seats being occupied and with some male passengers standing in the aisle. Then a middle-aged woman entered, looked around and seeing no seat available grasped the back of a seat in order to hold her footing against the jerks of the oncoming car. Here were male passengers who, should have offered the woman a seat without pondering over it. But one of the four young ladies instantly arose and tendered her seat to the woman who was standing. She accepted with thanks and the young lady stood in the aisle with the woman seated. I thought that a very nice thing for a young girl to do. It showed the men around her. I felt that those young ladies had been well trained somewhere and when I saw them get off the car and enter the Rogers Hall school, I realized they were students of that institution.

THE KU KLUX KLAN (Fall River News)

The attorney general of Kansas has received instructions from the governor to drive every Ku Klux Klan official out of the state. The governor does not propose to leave the enforcement of law to any organization which works outside the courts. His position is just and cannot be questioned. The country cannot afford to allow any irresponsible society to pass upon questions of law and disguised by sheets and masks to inflict punishment upon persons who have incurred its displeasure.

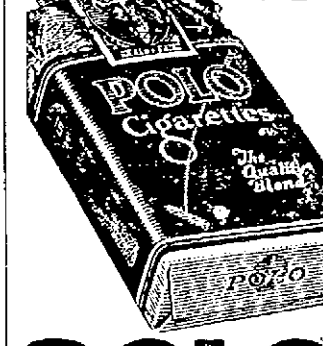

The constitution of the United States provides for tolerance in religion and it discriminates against no race; all that it requires of men and women in obedience to law. There are duly constituted courts of law established to deal with offenders. The whipping of the mayor of a Kansas town, because he had refused to allow a Klan to hold meetings in a public hall, is a specimen offense of the organization with which Governor Allen is dealing. There is no lack of resolution in the courts of Kansas. He certainly should have that backing to the fullest extent. In dealing with the Klan he is fighting the battle of honest people everywhere. The doing of the vigilance committees of the early days of the settlement of California were perhaps to be justified by the primitive and disturbed conditions then and there prevailing; but there is no such warrant for present interference with the orderly administration of justice. The Ku Klux Klan is an anachronism. It is not to be allowed in this country. It is an intolerable interference with established government.

Berton Braley's Daily Poem TOP-HEAVY ODDS

Said old Jim Budd, the gambler: "I've often staked my wad, And watched the wheel come even, when I have backed the odd; I've played the race' ponies, I've plunged a heap at stud, There wasn't any game of chance that frightened Jimmy Budd. I like the thrill of gambling, it's breath of life to me, I'll take a shot at anything an' bet my money free, I'll shove my stack across the board if there's a chance to win, But I won't gamble on this stuff they're sellin' now-as-gin!

I've backed the fare outfits, I've rolled the bones as well; I've won an' lost more heaps of jack than I would care to tell; I've took my losses smilin', the way a guy should do, At any game I've ever seen that's either old or new. My limit was the bright blue sky, an' people used to say I never moved an' eyelash when my pile was swept away. I had my bouts with Burleycorn before the land went dry, But I don't take no chances now on Prohibition Rye!

"I never was no piker, I ain't no piker now, But every guy has limits, an' this is mine, I vow; I will not bet my years of life against a little drink, An' any time I get the stuff I pone it down the sink. An' though I've seen most everything, I somehow ain't inclined To relish going to a home for people who are blind, Name any game you wanta play, you'll find I won't refuse, But I won't bet my two good eyes against a shot of booze!" (Copyright, 1922, The Lowell Sun)

APPEAL FOR "YES" VOTE ON LIQUOR REFERENDUM

A strong appeal for a "Yes" vote tomorrow on the prohibition referendum, which seeks to have the Massachusetts state liquor laws coincide with the national Volstead act, was made at the First Congregational church last night by the pastor, Rev. Percy B. Thomas.

Just before the sermon, which was from the text, "Ye are the light of the World," John W. Daily read resolutions in support of the 18th amendment adopted by the Catholic, Total Abstinence Union of America in August of this year. Rev. Mr. Thomas also read a letter from Dennis A. McCarthy, who regretted inability to be present and speak, but who earnestly hoped for success for the "yes" campaign in Lowell.

Rev. Mr. Thomas declared prohibition the greatest world problem of today and said: "Your civic duty is as great as your soul duty for the day of judgment." He urged every man and woman to vote on Tuesday and said that the importance of the vote on the prohibition referendum, "What will happen if Massachusetts does not accept this act already passed by the legislature and signed by the governor?" he asked. "It will not change the federal law, but it will mean that this state will not have the power to back up the government and state officers will say it is not their duty to help."

VETERANS MEET AGAIN AFTER 59 YEARS

Lt. Charles H. Stickey, popular member of Post 120, G.A.R., and generally to be found smoking a genuine good cigar every afternoon while the old gamblers are going on the top floor where the "vets" meet to kill a little time, had a story to tell today that made his comrades drop the pipe-bowls and checker tablets for a time.

Brother Stickey has just returned from a story to tell today that made his comrades drop the pipe-bowls and checker tablets for a time.

Brother Stickey has just returned from a story to tell today that made his comrades drop the pipe-bowls and checker tablets for a time.

It was a joyous reunion, for Young and Lt. Stickey were in the same company of the same regiment, lived and fought together for months against the "red" and many a time shared each other's tobacco as well as ration. In fact, the two men were chums, but the separation came when Lt. Stickey, the latter spent two hours packing up a few things and started for Hudson.

Young served three years with the New Hampshire regiment, while Mr. Stickey of Lowell served four years and four months, and was all through that famous Louisiana campaign with tanks, butler and all the other. A feature of the reunion of the Lowell man and his old comrade, was a reunion that also occurred last week between Young and a brother who had been separated for 53 years. Lyman Young was the absent one who returned to Hudson about the same time as Mr. Stickey did. The two Youngs are bachelors.

John Young has been a trapper of note and has had many a fight with black bears, panthers and wildcats in former days out west. He was in Virginia City, Nev., when the gold strike was on.

AN ANCIENT BUT AN ACTIVE CADILLAC

Through the courtesy of Russell Dana, of the Geo. R. Dana & Sons, local representatives of the Cadillac company, one of the Sun's advertising men had a thrilling ride around the town in a Cadillac touring car of the vintage of 1902. What a car it was! You had to hold on to the sides, it went so fast. It was a one-lung affair, that is, a one cylinder car, but, oh boy, it could hop right along. It speeded around corners, up and down hills, and it gave you thrills that one gets in riding in the modern roller coasters at the beaches and amusement parks. You get plenty of air in the little boat, as the back, front, and part of the sides are open to let the good old air in. The car has an exceptionally short wheelbase, and guards, much similar to those now in use, which just cover the wheels, and a single step at the front and one at the rear. It surely was great fun sitting into the tenuous of this remarkable car. You enter by a door which is at the back of the car, and once inside you are privileged to occupy one of two seats, on each side of the car. The car is intended for four passengers nevertheless. The front tires, by the way, are of the pneumatic type but the rear ones are solid. The old car is truly worth inspection and a comparison with the 1922 Cadillac type. The new type, as compared with the old car, tells the story of the enormous strides made by the Cadillac company in the automobile field in the past 20 years.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

J. F. KEITH'S THEATRE.
Versatile, cultured, always entertaining Bert Levy will hold the front spot on the bill at the J. F. Keith theatre, this week. No more accomplished person is on the stage with more than Levy, who, for years, has been called to his support millions of persons who are interested in clean, high class entertainment. Levy is an illustrator. For his stage purposes he uses smoked glass, the pictures being thrown up by a powerful magnifying lens. He has done work for many of the best-known of magazines, and he has written entertainingly of stage topics. He is at present author of essays in New York and London papers. Levy is of the finest grade of stage performers. The Boston City Four, made up of a quartet of the best comedians who sing, will play a biennial visit to us, this week. The members of the quartet are Messrs. Vic Mello, Girard, Hughes and Roscoe, and they have kept steadily going with their unquenchable act from season's opening to end. It is because they make comedy as well as sing that they are in such demand. No part of his kind, no real imitator, follows "Green Goods," which Arthur Stone and Marlon Hayes will give. Stone is an excellent fine comedian, who does a splendid line of work with Miss Hayes. The latter is the carnival woman; Hayes is the silly, wise guy from the small town, who, for once, meets more than his equal.

"Tangle," the acting dog, will appear with Ted Allen, in a sketch. This is probably the first time that a canine has actually been an actor in a play. Allen has said that he can teach the dog any trick in 15 minutes.

Famously Douglas make a happy combination in their farcical sketch. They are a man and a woman, and the woman is the comedy person of the duo.

And don't overlook May McKay and her sisters, for they are the comeliest, most attractive, English lassies we have known in years. The Hartwells are daring rape performers. It is an A 1 bill all through.

Y. M. C. I. OBSERVES
MEMORIAL SUNDAY

The annual memorial Sunday of the Y.M.C.I. was observed yesterday morning when several hundred members received communion in a body in the immaculate Conception church and later attended the exercises in Y.M.C.I. hall, Stackpole street. The mass was celebrated by Very Rev. Lawrence P. Tighe, O.M.I., with Rev. W. A. Robbins, O.M.I., assisting at communion. Very Rev. Fr. Tighe addressed the members at the mass, congratulating them on their splendid appearance and exhorting them to live up to and abide by the ideals of their organization and the Catholic church.

A communion breakfast followed the mass. Thomas B. Higgins presiding. Rev. Fr. Robbins then gave an informal talk and stressed the necessity of divorcing religion from politics, saying that the members of the church get their religion from Rome and their politics from Washington. He spoke interestingly of the coming election day and urged those present to vote for the best fitted for office, their ability and not their creed.

The other speakers were Maurice E. McCormick and Thomas J. Beane. Entertainment numbers were given by Thomas Kelly, Thomas Carlin, Thomas J. O'Donnell, Alfred J. Cooney, Edward Cawley, Frank P. McCarthy, Paul J. Angelo, Charles J. Keyes, Joseph Craven, John Broderick, Joseph Flannery and others. Thomas Higgins had general supervision of the exercises.

unceasing backache, is often nature's first signal of hidden kidney weakness. Other warnings quickly follow, such as distressing kidney action, headaches, dizziness, and knife-like pains when you stoop or lift. Don't wait for serious trouble. Use Doan's Kidney Pills before it is too late. Doan's have helped thousands and should help you. Ask your neighbor!

Read How These LOWELL Folks Found Relief:

MRS. H. M. LORRAIN, 35 Puffer St.
SAYS: "I had severe attacks of backache and I couldn't rest at night and in the morning I was as tired as when I went to bed. My kidneys were not working properly. Doan's Kidney Pills had been used in the family so I decided to give them a trial. My back became strong and I felt like a different person."

C. A. KNAUP, City Fireman, 47 Hawthorne St.
SAYS: "Being exposed to all kinds of weather affected my kidneys and brought on kidney complaints. I had a heavy pain through the small of my back and when I stooped, a stitch caught me through the small of my back and I had dizzy spells and came near falling. I used Doan's Kidney Pills bought at J. J. Rogers & Co. Drug Store and they soon rid me of the backache and dizzy spells. I wouldn't be without Doan's in my home."

MRS. L. WRIGHT, 1257 Middlesex St.
SAYS: "The following statement February 19, 1919: 'My kidneys were in a bad condition and I suffered from a steady ache through the small of my back. My work was often neglected due to the soreness and lameness in my back. My kidneys acted irregularly and when I read of Doan's Kidney Pills I used them. Doan's rid me of the complaint. On November 15, 1921, Mrs. Wright said: 'I have used Doan's Kidney Pills since endorsing them for an attack of kidney complaint brought on by a cold. Doan's rid me of the trouble quickly.'"

Disease Detector—Aids Cure Of Heart and Lung Ailments

DEMONSTRATING THE HEART-BEAT DETECTOR

By N.E.A. Service
LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 6.—Diseases of the heart and lungs will be detected at an early stage, thanks to the aid of the radio receiver.
This new field for wireless has been opened up through the invention of a device for magnifying heart beats by Professor R. H. Abbott of the physics department of Purdue University here. A microphone type of stethoscope is combined with radio loud speaker and vacuum tube receiver so that the heart beats of a person could be heard throughout the largest auditorium of the university.
Several physicians before whom the apparatus was demonstrated for the first time declared it of invaluable aid in detecting heart and lung diseases. As a consequence it is believed it will help save the lives of many patients.
Born of Curiosity
The whole instrument is a product of curiosity on the part of its inventor. Professor Abbott toyed with the radio receiving set and microphone and found that with one vacuum tube amplifier the heart beats could be heard only a few feet. But with two or more, they were audible over a large area.
To help toward this amplification Professor Abbott constructed a tuned microphone stethoscope which consists essentially of two dead air chambers. These are separated by a tuned diaphragm to which is attached carbon granule resistance cells to transform sound energy into electrical energy. At the other end of one of the dead air chambers is attached a periodic discharge used to detect the heart beats by placing it against the chest. A vacuum tube amplifier and loud-speaking telephone are used in connection with the instrument to function in the usual manner as at radio receiving stations. All foreign noises are eliminated.
The apparatus has been used for making phonograph records of the heart action of a number of athletes and persons with irregular heart beats.

Adventures of the Twins

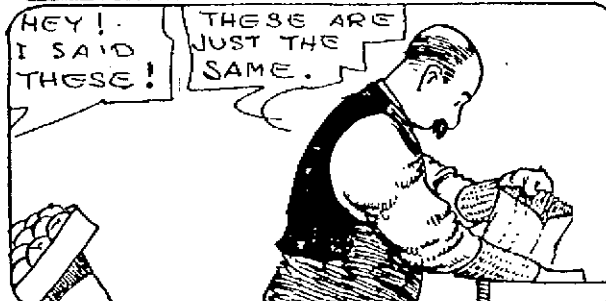

A PECULIAR JOURNEY

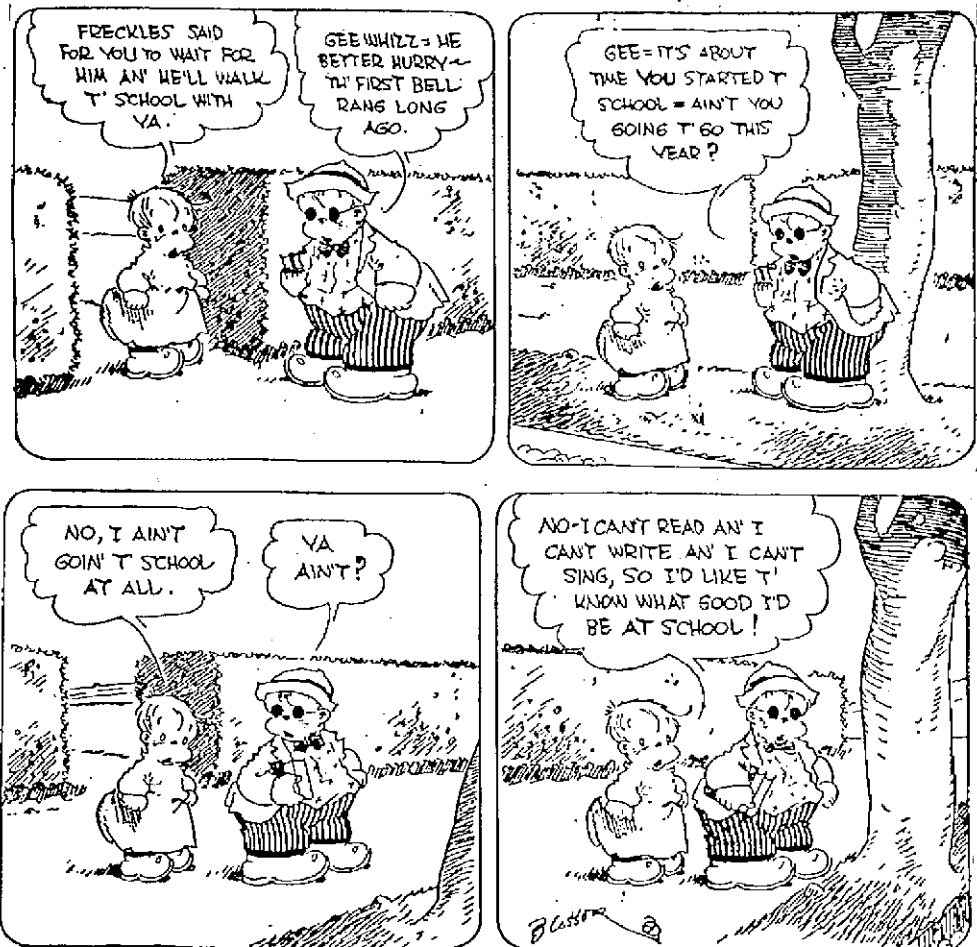

HE REACHED DOWN WITH HIS TOE AND TURNED THE CAR ALL THE WAY AROUND

Backward flew the magic automobile with Nance and Nick in it. It certainly did look now as though they never would reach the Fairy Queen's Palace, and they wondered what the good queen herself would be thinking when they did not return with her car.
But it wasn't their fault. It was Light Fingers who had caused the trouble by dropping a magic pill into the gasoline tank.
Back they went, back and back and back, right toward the cave of Twelve Toes, the Sorcerer.
They whizzed by the field with the Scare Crow in it, and the Scare Crow was so surprised he fell over on his straw face.
They whizzed by the chimney where the Sweep lived, and the Sweep was so surprised he fell clear out of the chimney top.
They whizzed by the three-cornered door of Brownland and Mr. Pin Tim, looking out, was so surprised he fell down his step-ladder.
They whizzed by the orchard where Buckins, the apple-tree fairy, lived, and he was so surprised he fell out of his elevator down to the ground.
They whizzed by Tinkadub, and Tinkadub and Scribble-Scratch and all of their old fairy friends, and everybody was so surprised they fell down, too, every one of them.
Then something happened. The Green Wizard saw them and saved them.
When they were passing the big tree where he lived, he reached down with his toe and turned the car all the way around. It was still going backward, but in the right direction.
They were on their way again to the Fairy Queen's Palace.

Jack Daw at Sea! Chapter 2

The water where Jack had launched his raft was smooth as a mirror and the raft lay perfectly still. "How can I get it to move out?" Jack asked the fisherman. "Why, that's easy," replied the man. "I'll run up to my shanty and get you a long pole. You can use it as an oar."

Shortly after the fisherman had left, small waves began to roll in. Jack looked out to sea and decided that a passing boat was causing them. Then his raft started to move. The backwash was taking him out. "Come on, Flip," shouted Jack. And the dog swam to the moving raft.

"We sure are traveling right along," said Jack to Flip. And the dog barked and wagged his tail. On and on the raft went, farther and farther away from shore. Jack enjoyed this and sat down to rest. Soon he was fast asleep. Faithful Flip nestled close to Jack. (Continued.)

And said petitioner is hereby directed to give public notice thereof, by publishing this citation once in each week, for three successive weeks, in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be on one day, at least, before said Court, and by mailing post-paid, or delivering a copy of this citation to all known persons interested in the estate, seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, George F. Lawton, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this second day of November, in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two.
